Trial Site:

Barn Hunt rings are in the rear of the Happy Hounds Annex building, 300 Waterman Drive, Harrisonburg, VA. We have secured permission to use the American Legion Side of the parking lot. Please stay towards the rear of their lot and do not park in the "aisle" section closest to their door. There is plenty of parking on the Annex side. In addition, parking in the enclosed, grassy area of the Daycare business, may be able available if the ground is dry. This option is completely dependent on the weather.

The daycare will be OPEN for business, so please do not go into the red building at all.

There are two bathrooms located in the front half of the annex building. Please flush liberally and do not clog up the toilets as they cannot handle large amounts of toilet paper.

Due to covid, we are not allowing spectators at these trials. Please do not bring or invite extra family members or friends. If you are not volunteering, in the blind, in the pre-staging for a blind, or running your dog, you need to remain OUTSIDE at your vehicle at least 10 feet from people not in your household/travel group.

You may crate at your car or inside, but there will be no hanging out or loitering at your crate.

This is a warehouse type building. Smoking in private vehicles only and please do not throw your butts on the ground. Due to Covid, no food will be provided. We will have water available for the volunteers.

There is a gravel ramp behind the building that goes up into a grassy field where you may walk your dog. It will be too soft to allow parking in that area, but you can walk. There are also some small grassy areas on the parking side of the building.
